IMPORTANT CAUTION FOR ALL THE STUDENTS

1. The institute does not support or promote any student parties or gatherings on or off campus and is not responsible for any incidents arising from such unofficial events.

2. Mass absenteeism in any class or branch will be considered a serious act of indiscipline and attract disciplinary action.

3. Students are responsible for the custody of their belongings; the institute will not be liable for any loss.

4. Students should not post or share disrespectful, communal, hateful, or obscene content about others on social media, whether knowingly or unknowingly. Violations will be punishable under various sections of Cyber Law.

5. Students should join official communication groups only created by authorized personnel or departments.

6. Use of mobile phones in classrooms is strictly prohibited. If found, it will attract strict disciplinary action.

Students must adhere to these rules seriously; failure to comply will lead to disciplinary and/or legal action.
